	11/9/2001 Heard Mr. Prashant Mishra, learned counsel for the petitioner and Shri Gautam Bhadhuri, learned GA for the State. While the petitioner was serving with the husband, who is also a Government servant at the same place, order of transfer came to be issued on 20/8/2001 transferring the writ petitioner to another place which is at ~~the~~ a distance about 60 kilometers. Mr. Mishra, learned counsel for the petitioner submits that this will cause a lot of inconvenience in the family. Shri Gautam Bhadhuri, learned GA submits that the writ petitioner has no valid reason to approach this Court for interference in the matter. It is further stated that the writ petitioner has not been relieved till date. If that be so, it will be fair to ~~stay~~ say that if the writ petitioner makes a representation highlighting the grievance before the Competent Authority within ten days from today, the Competent Authority shall examine such representation and pass necessary orders on merit within ten days from the date of receipt of such representation. Till disposal of the representation, the order of transfer shall not be given effect to. The petition is disposed of. C.C. as per rules. Sd/- Chief Justice
